

IN THE UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
DISTRICT OF SOUTH CAROLINA

Donovan Isaiah Jones,

Plaintiff,

v.

US Wings Deli (Owner),

Defendants.

C/A No. 3:25-cv-671-JFA-SVH

ORDER

Donovan Isaiah Jones (“Plaintiff”), proceeding pro se, filed this civil action against US Wings Deli. The Complaint has been filed pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1915; § 1915A. In accordance with 28 U.S.C. § 636(b) and Local Civil Rule 73.02(B)(2) (D.S.C.), the case was referred to the Magistrate Judge for initial review.

After performing an initial review of the complaint, the Magistrate Judge assigned to this action prepared a thorough Report and Recommendation¹ (“Report”). (ECF No. 6). Within the Report, the Magistrate Judge opines that this case should be dismissed for lack of subject matter jurisdiction. Id. The Report sets forth, in detail, the relevant facts and standards of law on this matter, and this Court incorporates those facts and standards without a recitation.

Plaintiff was advised of his right to object to the Report, which was entered on the docket on February 6, 2025. Id. The Magistrate Judge required Plaintiff to file objections by February 20, 2025. Id. Plaintiff failed to file any objections and the time for doing so has elapsed. Thus, this matter is ripe for review.

A district court is only required to conduct a de novo review of the specific portions of the Magistrate Judge's Report to which an objection is made. See 28 U.S.C. § 636(b); Fed. R. Civ. P. 72(b); Carniewski v. W. Virginia Bd. of Prob. & Parole, 974 F.2d 1330 (4th Cir. 1992). In the absence of specific objections to portions of the Magistrate's Report, this Court is not required to give an explanation for adopting the recommendation. See Camby v. Davis, 718 F.2d 198, 199 (4th Cir. 1983).

Here, Plaintiff has failed to raise any objections and therefore this Court is not required to give an explanation for adopting the recommendation. A review of the Report and prior orders indicates that the Magistrate Judge correctly concluded that Plaintiff's Complaint is subject to dismissal for lack of subject matter jurisdiction.

After carefully reviewing the applicable laws, the record in this case, and the Report, this Court finds the Magistrate Judge's recommendation fairly and accurately summarizes the facts and applies the correct principles of law. Accordingly, this Court adopts the Magistrate Judge's Report and Recommendation and incorporates it herein by reference. (ECF No. 6). Consequently, this case is dismissed without prejudice for lack of subject matter jurisdiction.

IT IS SO ORDERED.
